BOYS IN POOL ROOMS. Interesting Test Case Coming Up Involving Son of Proprietor of Resort.

Lloyd Jevne, a professional pool player, who conducts a pool room at 227 south Main street, is charged with contributing to the delinquency of his son, William E. Jevne, aged 15 years, by permitting the boy to remain in the place and conduct it in his father's absence. The complaint was issued Tuesday by Judge P. Lyon, county attorney, at the request of the juvenile court officers. The outcome of the case will be watched with interest, because it will determine whether a man in Jevne's business can permit his own son to loiter about the place without being subject to punishment under the juvenile court law.

CONVENTION TO BE A HUMMER

Good Roads Debate in the Armory Hall Next Week Promises Big Features.

IDAHO SENDING DELEGATES.

Experts Scheduled to Read Papers—Special Rates on the Railroads for Delegations and Spectators.

Secy. James E. Jennings's office in the judge building is a busy place in preparation for the big Good Roads convention to be held in the Armory hall, Salt Lake, Jan. 26 and 27. The program for the occasion was decided upon Tuesday at the board meeting in the office of Gov. William Spry, there being present O. H. Hewitt and Secy. J. E. Jennings of Salt Lake; O. B. Madsen, county commissioner of Weber county; Caleb Tanner, state engineer, all members of the Good Roads executive board.

At the meeting it was announced that the railroads have made rates for the round trip. The rates start Jan. 24, good returns until Jan. 31. From the information received, every county of the state, and every city and town of importance, will be represented at the convention. Many of the adjoining states will have large delegations. Gov. Brady of Idaho sending word that his state will probably have double the number previously announced. The United States government will be represented by its greatest road expert, Logan W. Page, and others who will deliver lectures on road materials, road construction and road preservation. Indications are this will be the biggest and most successful good roads convention yet held in the west.

PROGRAM OUTLINED. Following is the program as completed up to date:

JANUARY 26, 10 A. M. Convention will be called to order by Gov. William Spry.

Invocation by Rev. E. I. Goshen. Naming of permanent chairman and secretary.

ENGINEER HELD UP. George N. Hock Parts With Valuable Watch at Muzzle of Gun.

George N. Hock, an engineer on the Oregon Short Line railroad, was held up and robbed by two armed men within 100 yards of his home, 415 west Third North, Tuesday night. The robbers secured $2 in cash and a gold watch that had a movement valued at $50.

The highwaymen were hiding behind a tree and as Hock drew near they stepped in front of him and ordered him to throw up his hands. The engineer resisted but one of the robbers told Hock to stand near the tree with his hands in the air for 15 minutes or they would kill him. The victim of the robbery describes one man as being tall and the other short. The latter gave Hock back 10 cents and remarked he would not take the watch were it not such a fine one. The robbery was reported to the police.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.
